

Able Training and Consultancy Disability Discrimination Act Statement

Able training and Consultancy anticipates the potential requirements of customers, associates, and participants with disabilities and takes all reasonable action in order to minimise any potential discrimination and to cater for all the needs of individuals whether at work or when engaged in training.

Able Training and Consultancy requests commissioners of training to advise at the earliest possible date and least five working days before the course, if any participants have particular requirements or needs. Able Training and Consultancy and the training commissioners will endeavour to ensure all aspects of the provision of the training and venue will meet the specified need.
